The Rotary Club of Fayetteville, Arkansas

Club Newsletter
 July 2007

Dear A. D.,

WELCOME to the Fayrotales newsletter

The first meeting in July is a changeover meeting for new officers and Board members. Sincere thanks to now past president Laura for great and gracious leadership the past year. And best wishes to new president Howard Brill for the new Rotary year.

Many thanks to Bucky Jones for outstanding programs in June, ending on high note with good talk from Governor Beebe.

It Was Fayro Time - June 15-17

Many thanks to Softball Committee and all volunteers for putting on the best Fayro ever, by all reports. The number of teams participating and amount raised for our Club exceeded all past tournaments. Final figures are not available but reports indicate the money available for Club projects and gifts in the new year will exceed $25,000. The final gift from 2006 Fayro Classic was made to Washington Co.4-H program by Dale Killian.

Great job, all involved!!

Editorial Privilege

There were a number of good editorials on and before the Fourth of July. Following are excerpts from a couple. Patriots vote...as a way of commenting on the trajectory of the Country. A patriot wants what is best for America, not necessarily what is best for certain American interests. Phillip Martin - Arkansas Democrat Gazette July 3

Tonight, all day, let's embrace our shared history. Democrats and Republicans. All shades and colors alike. Tomorrow, let's worry about returning to the values that made us great, and could again. We can do it. We just have to believe in "We the People of the United States...". Northwest Arkansas Times, Born on the Fourth of July, July 4
