Club Newsletter

April 2008

Dear A. D.,

WELCOME to the Fayrotales newsletter

April is magazine month for Rotary - give a gift of Rotarian magazine to a potential member, or just give them your copy AFTER you have read it.

April Rotarian magazine article on Emotional Resilience for relief workers carried good advice for all of us who may feel overwhelmed at needs we see - just help the first person you encounter with a need and realize you might have changed their life. If you make a practice of that, the "one" will turn into many.

Boys and Girls State

Kim Smith needs the names of potential high schoolers who we can nominate for Boys and Girls State to be held the first part of June.

Apparently we had no takers for the RYLA camp held at the end of March.

Fayetteville Rotary Web Site

Articles in Rotarian magazine for April about upgrades to the Rotary International web site remind me that our own web site may be in need of some upgrades. We have planned some housekeeping changes that are definitely needed. But would like to know of changes members might like to see to make the web site more useful or informative. While we probably cannot take on a major rewrite, some small changes might be possible if they would increase the usefulness of the web site. So please send your ideas to poolea40@aol.com.

Gift to Historical Society

In March checks were presented to a number of organizations from the 2007 FAYRO tournament proceeds. Shown are Rotarians A

Award to RI for Water Projects

The United Nations Association of New York has honored Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation of RI with its 2007 Humanitarian Award, in recognition of Rotary's significant efforts to provide safe water and sanitation and its commitment to sustainable development worldwide.

"In the years since Rotary International has started focusing on water as one of its annual service emphases, we've learned just how much can be accomplished with relatively little, how a single small water project, perhaps a pump or a filter, can change the life of a community," says RI President Wilfrid J. Wilkinson. "However, our work has also included participation in many other major water projects."
