Club Newsletter
October 2008

Dear A. D.,

WELCOME to the Fayrotales newsletter

See the October Rotarian magazine for information on the 2009 RI 100th Convention. It will be held in Birmingham England and it appears the good folk there have a lot planned for the lucky attendees.

In This Issue

- UPCOMING PROGRAMS
- District Conference
- Rotary Projects Make Us Proud
- Ask Uncle Ronnie

District Conference

Rotarian Fred Vorsanger will present awards given at the Conference at our October 2 meeting. If we ask nicely, maybe Fred will also give us a short review of the Conference.

Rotary Projects Make Us Proud

If the projects undertaken by our own Club are not enough to make us proud, and they should, just read about the many and varied projects being carried out around the World by Rotarians in the October Rotarian magazine. Our speaker last week, Ed Mattson, exhausted most of us with his many references to Rotary projects but in the end, he also made us proud to be Rotarians and have some part in these many projects. No wonder the Gates Foundation saw fit to challenge Rotary with their grant to Polio Plus. As Ed Mattson said, we should be ready to wipe this dread disease out once and for all, and move on to some of the many other worthwhile projects that are available. Let's continue to build on the great start on our contribution to Polio Plus, seeded by Lewis Epley and Paige Mulhollan.
