The Rotary Club of Fayetteville, Arkansas

Club Newsletter
 June 2009

Dear A. D.,

WELCOME to the Fayrotales newsletter

Programs for June look to be as good as those from May. This month will feature Nature Conservancy speakers for 3 meetings. How lucky we are to have good programs, good company and good food.

Received notice of new book in series edited by our own George "Bear" Graen on management strategies and need to change with times as illustrated by example of WalMart.

Give shout to our fellow Fayetteville Rotarians in Northside Club as they celebrate their 40th anniversary as a Club. That may make some feel old remembering when they were chartered.

Polio Plus/Paul Harris Fellow Program Big Success

Paul Batson reports that he is still processing applications and will be presenting a lot of new Paul Harris Fellow awards in coming weeks. Presumably this bodes well for our Polio Plus campaign as well.

Chiang Mai Rotary Club

Your editor posted information on the wrong Thailand Rotary Club last month. Our visitors were from the Chang Puak Chiangmai Rotary Club rather than the Chiang Mai

Rotarian of the Month:
Harvey Williams

June Programs

Change Cups beneficiary for May was Arkansas Sheriffs' Youth Ranch

June 4 Mark Kottmeyer, Karst Specialist with Nature Conservancy

June 11 Ethan Inlander, Dir. Ozark Rivers Program, Nature Conservancy

June 18 Tim Snell, Assoc. State Dir. Nature Conservancy - Water Initiative Overview

June 25 Outgoing Club President Mike Gibbs

Club. Their President said there are some 14 Clubs in the Chiang Mai area. The Chang Puak Club will celebrate their 25th anniversary this year while the Chiang Mai Club was organized some 50 years ago.

The guests from Chang Puak Club were most gracious and pleasant folks. We will do well to continue to work with them on future projects.

Service Above Self Honorees

Our Club recognized some outstanding citizens at the May 21 Service Above Self banquet. Our own Jim Huffman most deservedly received the Fred Vorsanger Award recognizing his outstanding service as a Rotarian. The Clark McClinton Service Above Self Award went to Hershey and Denise Garner, Fayetteville citizens, for their service to so many local organizations. Mrs. Garner is pictured with David McClinton who presented the award named for his father to the Garner's. Congratulations to Jim and the Garner's for all they unselfishly do.

Membership

The lifeblood of organizations like Rotary are our members. But the need is always there to renew our membership with "new blood" continually. This keeps our numbers up of course, but also brings in new ideas and energy to keep our's a vibrant and progressive Club.

Do a friend or associate a favor and invite them to visit and maybe even join.

Directory Photos

If you have a picture you like better than the one currently in the online directory, please send a digital copy (.jpg format preferably) to A.D. Poole at poolea40@aol.com. We don't do photo editing or the editor's picture would look better. And, no John, we will not put the Pope Fred picture in. However, if your picture is old like some of our old black and white ones, let us update it with a newer one so people can recognize you at the next meeting.
